

Harvard University Admission Committee

Dear Members,

I am writing to apply for your International Economics, PhD program. As a student who discovered economics through Renmin University of China, I believe my background aligns with your department's focus.

I would be honored to contribute to your academic community.

Sincerely,

Yu xiangtian

2025.3